Subject: RLC Update #3--What Are the Competitive Events (Individual)? UPDATED
Importance: High

Dear FBLA Advisers and Members

One event was omitted (Introduction to Business Procedures) from the previous email. It is now included.

In this e-mail, I will answer the following questions:

1. What are the competitive events that will be offered at the RLC?
2. What events are individual events?
3. What events are team events?
4. What events are school-site events?
5. What events are performance events?
6. How many students may I enter in an event at my RLC?
7. What events have grade-level specific restrictions?

The following information will answer multiple questions at a time. Yes, this may be a little lengthy, but I am hoping it will help guide you as you prepare to register your students for the conference. Remember, there will be a series of e-mails that will answer these questions so stay tuned. This e-mail will focus on pure "individual" objective test competitive events. The following events are open to students in grades 9-12. There may be some specific restrictions attached to these events.

Remember, not all competitive events are listed in this e-mail. In future e-mails, I will address: team events, school-site events, performance events.

If there is a discrepancy between what I have written here and the PA FBLA Policy/Leadership Handbook, anything that is written in the PA FBLA Policy/Leadership Handbook supersedes anything I have written.

If you want to read the event guidelines for these events, go to www.pafbla.org – choose "competitive events" in the blue menus at the left – click on the title of the event you wish to review. Pay close attention to the competencies in each event.

You can also click on the event title below to view the guidelines
