

NATIONAL BUSINESS HONOR SOCIETY

Pennsylvania FBLA Chapter

The National Business Honor Society is designed to recognize those members of FBLA who truly excel in academic preparation and an eventual career in the business world. Pennsylvania FBLA recognizes that in order to succeed as a true business leader, our members need to be well prepared in terms of their academics, career skills, and leadership development.

FBLA chapters in Pennsylvania are encouraged to nominate members to be recognized in the National Business Honor Society who meet the following criteria:

- ▶ High School: Overall cumulative GPA of at least 3.5 on a 4.0 scale.
- ▶ Overall cumulative GPA of at least 3.5 of a 4.0 scale in business, computer, and information technology courses with a minimum of two completed courses.
- ▶ Demonstrated leadership potential through service as a chapter officer, committee leader, or other participation in chapter activities.
- ▶ Clearly defined career objectives.

Members accepted in the National Business Honor Society will be recognized with the following: (1) recognition on PA FBLA web site; (2) membership certificate; (3) honor society pin; and (4) recognition at the State Leadership Conference, if in attendance.

In order to nominate members for this honor, each nominee must complete the online National Business Honor Society application and follow the steps in submitting the necessary supporting documents. The SUBMISSION deadline for National Business Honor Society applications is March 2, 2017 (applications may be submitted at any time prior to March 2).

Visit www.pafbla.org, look for "Recognition/Awards" at the left, and choose "Business Honor Society" for more information. A student may apply for membership in the Honor Society no earlier than the end of the first semester of his/her junior year. Once accepted into the Honor Society, the member does not need to reapply.
