

National Business Honor Society Pennsylvania Chapter

The National Business Honor Society is designed to recognize those members of FBLA who truly excel in academic preparation and an eventual career in the business world. Pennsylvania FBLA recognizes that in order to succeed as a true business leader, our members need to be well prepared in terms of their academics, career skills, and leadership development.

FBLA chapters in Pennsylvania are encouraged to nominate members to be recognized in the National Business Honor Society who meet the following criteria:

- ▶ High School: Overall cumulative GPA of at least 3.5 on a 4.0 scale.
- ▶ Overall cumulative GPA of at least 3.5 of a 4.0 scale in business, computer, and information technology courses with a minimum of two completed courses.
- ▶ Demonstrated leadership potential through service as a chapter officer, committee leader, or other participation in chapter activities.
- ▶ Clearly defined career objectives.

Members accepted in the National Business Honor Society will be recognized with the following: (1) letter to high school principal; (2) letter to district superintendent; (3) recognition on PA FBLA web site; (4) membership certificate; (5) honor society pin; and (6) recognition at the State Leadership Conference, if in attendance.

In order to nominate members for this honor, copy and complete this form for each nominee with supporting documentation and mail it to the PA FBLA Executive Director. The postmark deadline for National Business Honor Society nominations is February 23, 2007. Visit www.pafbla.org for a downloadable copy of the application.

A student may apply for membership in the honor society no earlier than the end of the first semester of his/her junior year.
