
E-business

One critical element in a business' success in today's global market is the ability to sell products and services to the consumer via the Internet. This event recognizes FBLA members who have developed proficiency in the creation and design of Web commerce sites.

Competencies

The topic to be addressed by the web site developed for competition at the State Leadership Conference and the National Leadership Conference is posted on the PA FBLA web site and also published in the E-Business event guidelines in the National Chapter Management Handbook. FBLA members will be producing a document that addresses the topic and is appropriate for the audience, using graphics, text treatment, and special effects to show creativity and cohesiveness of design, selecting appropriate fonts and type sizes, and creating an overall layout and design that is creative and appealing. The performance will demonstrate that the topic was developed logically and systematically, the design process is effectively communicated, include tips, tools and techniques used, demonstrate the ability to make a businesslike presentation, show self-confidence through knowledge of content and articulation of ideas, and effectively answer questions.

State Eligibility

Each local chapter may submit two (2) entries. Participation in this event will allow an individual or a team of two (2) or three (3) members to demonstrate proficiency in conceptualizing, designing, and creating efficient and marketable e-business sites. The local chapter must be on record in the Pennsylvania state and the FBLA-PBL national offices as having paid dues by January 31 of the current school year. Members participating in this event may not compete in another competitive event at a Region Leadership Conference.

The ten (10) entries with the highest rating sheet scores will qualify to attend the State Leadership Conference. The top ten (10) finalists will be notified by the PA FBLA Executive Director/State Chairman by date published at www.pafbla.org/importantdates.php, which is posted on the PA FBLA web site. No more than one (1) may have competed in this event at a previous State Leadership Conference.

In the event of a team entry, no more than one (1) member may have submitted a project for judging at a previous State Leadership Conference. A member who has submitted an individual entry may not compete again in this event.

2. The web site must be available for viewing on the Internet at the time of judging.

 4. Web sites submitted for competition should be “frozen” from the submission deadline until the opening session of the State Leadership Conference. This will allow for judging to occur without the possibility of inappropriate changes.

 6. Student members, not advisers, must prepare web sites. Advisers should serve as consultants to ensure that the web sites are well organized, contain substantiated statements, and are presented in a professional manner.
 7. The use of templates must be identified at the bottom of the home page.
 8. Web sites not adhering to these regulations will be disqualified.
