Region Eligibility

Each chapter may enter three (3) participants who are members of active local chapters and are on record in the Pennsylvania state and the FBLA-PBL national offices as having paid dues by January 31. If the region conference is scheduled before January 31, then dues must be paid prior to that conference date as established by the region and posted on the PA FBLA web site.

Participants should have had more than one (1) year of high school accounting instruction or its equivalent.

Participants are permitted to compete in this event one year only. Under no circumstances may a student repeat in this event.

It is the responsibility of the:

local chapter adviser

- to pay membership dues for all competitors by the published region deadline and to register students through the PA FBLA online registration system by the published deadline.

region adviser

- to verify that membership dues of participants at the region conference comply with the deadlines listed above.

State Eligibility

The minimum number of competitors each region may enter is the first-, second-, and third-place winners who are members of active local chapters and are on record in the Pennsylvania state and the FBLA-PBL national offices as having paid dues by January 31 or prior to the region conference by the date posted on the PA FBLA web site.

If any of the eligible winners cannot attend the SLC, it is the responsibility of the:

local chapter adviser

- to contact the region adviser about the student who will not be attending.

region adviser

- to contact the adviser of the next eligible competitor about participating at the State Leadership Conference.
- to notify the PA FBLA Executive Director/State Chairman of the change before the deadline date published at www.pafbla.org/importantdates.php, which is posted on the PA FBLA web site.

Region Procedure

1. A one-hour written objective test will be administered based on the previously listed competencies. All participants in this event must report at the event time listed in the program. If a participant arrives after the objective test has begun, he or she will be admitted to the testing area and will be permitted to take the test in the remaining amount of time for the event. The participant will not receive any additional instructions from the event administrators.
2. The participant must comply with the PA FBLA Dress Code which can be found at www.pafbla.org/dresscode.php. If the participant does not comply, the participant will not be admitted to the testing area until he or she is in compliance.
3. Participants must furnish their own No. 2 pencils and erasers.
4. At the Region Leadership Conference, the participant may use his or her own cordless calculator unless one is provided by the region. At the RLC, no scientific calculators, graphing calculators, PDAs (Palm Pilots, etc.), phones, or other memory storage devices are allowed to be used in this event.

State Procedure—Production/Objective Testing

State Procedure—Production Test

The following procedures must be used:

1. The region adviser must submit the names of the RLC eligible winners on the Regional Winners Reporting Form to the PA FBLA Executive Director/State Chairman. The school-site test administrator for each eligible winner must be listed on the Regional Winners Reporting Form. The local chapter adviser is not permitted to be the school-site administrator.
2. One hour will be allowed for the test at the school-site testing site. The test cannot be administered in multiple sessions. Additional time will be allowed for general directions, equipment set up, and warm up. Problems are weighted according to difficulty.
3. Any accounting or spreadsheet software or a prepared template may be used. Problems will be weighted according to difficulty and may be completed in any order.
4. No reference materials are allowed. Calculators are not allowed on the production test.
5. Documents produced must be prepared by the participant without help from the adviser or any other person.

State Procedure—Objective Test

1. A one-hour written objective test will be administered based on the previously listed competencies.
2. All participants in this event must report at the event time listed in the program. If a participant arrives after the objective test has begun, he or she will be admitted to the testing area and will be permitted to take the test in the remaining amount of time for the event. The participant will not receive any additional instructions from the event administrators.

3. The participant must comply with the PA FBLA Dress Code which can be found at www.pafbla.org/dresscode.php. If the participant does not comply, the participant will not be admitted to the testing area until he or she is in compliance.
 4. Participants must furnish their own No. 2 pencils and erasers.
 5. At the State Leadership Conference, the participant will be provided a calculator to use in the competitive event. Participants may not use their own calculators. At the SLC, no scientific calculators, graphing calculators, PDAs (Palm Pilots, etc.), phones, or other memory storage devices are allowed to be used in this event.
 6. At the State Leadership Conference, the chapter adviser must confirm students' participation in the event. Participants who are not confirmed will be disqualified.

Region and State Judging

All objective tests will be graded through the online test service. If there is a tie between competitors, the last ten (10) test questions will be compared and the individual/team with the highest number of correct answers will be ranked higher. The process will continue in groups of ten (10) questions until the tie is broken. If, after reviewing the entire test, the tie cannot be broken, the individual/team submitting the test in the least amount of time will be ranked higher.

Tiebreaker implementation examples can be found in this handbook or at www.pafbla.org/tiebreakers.php.

This event will be scored in the following manner:

- 50% objective test score
- 50% production test (school-site test) score

Judging of the production test will be based on the participant's printed copy. A panel of judges will evaluate the documents, and all decisions of the judges are final.

Region Awards

Each region may decide the number and type of awards to be presented at the RLC.

State Awards

The state chapter will present a maximum of ten (10) awards at the State Leadership Conference.

National Conference Eligibility

The first- and second-place award winners at the State Leadership Conference are eligible to attend the National Leadership Conference. Advisers and participants should refer to the latest edition of the National Chapter Management Handbook for official National Leadership Conference event guidelines.

In the event that the first- or second-place winner cannot attend, it is the responsibility of the:

local chapter adviser

- to contact the PA FBLA Executive Director/State Chairman about the student who will not be attending.

PA FBLA Executive Director/State Chairman

- to contact the next eligible award winner about participating at the National Leadership Conference.
