Web Page Creation – Middle Level

This event provides recognition for FBLA Middle Level members who demonstrate an ability to develop a Web page using HTML or Web design software and deliver a message.

Competencies

- Document addresses topic and appropriate for the audience
- Graphics, text treatment, and special effects show creativity and cohesiveness of design
- Overall layout and design is creative and appealing
- Final product indicates a clear thought process and an intended, planned direction with formulation and execution of a firm idea
- Identify the basic functions and resources for editing an audio/video production
- Required information is effectively communicated
- Copyright laws followed

Business Education Curriculum Standards:

Information Technology; Marketing

2017 Topic

The topic for this event for the 2016-2017 school year is:

Create a web site that keeps members informed of your FBLA-Middle Level chapter's activities. Information to be included might be Meeting dates, upcoming activities, competitive event information, etc. Your web site should include photos and at least one external link.

State Eligibility

Each middle level chapter may enter up to five teams in this event. Each team may consist of a minimum of one (1) member and a maximum of three (3) members. Each middle level student is permitted to compete in one (1) objective test event, OR one (1) school site event.

Participants must be members of active local chapters on record in the Pennsylvania state and the FBLA-PBL national offices as having paid dues by January 31 of the current school year. If the region conference is scheduled before January 31, then dues must be paid prior to that conference date as established by the region and posted on the PA FBLA web site.

All middle level FBLA members in grades 5 through 8 are eligible for this event.

It is the responsibility of:

Local chapter adviser

- To pay membership dues for all competitors by the published deadline and to register students through the PA FBLA online registration system by the published deadline

National Eligibility

Each state may submit the top two entries. Entries may be created by an individual member or by a team, not to exceed three members. Participants must be members of an active local middle level chapter who are on record in the FBLA-PBL national center as having paid dues by January 31 of the current school year.

Procedure

1. The Web page may be one or two pages with at least one link.
2. The Web page must address the topic in the Description section. Entries will be judged according to the rating sheet.

3. The local chapter adviser must certify and submit an event entry form which is posted on the PA FBLA website by the deadline listed. The form must include the information on the form INCLUDING the URL of the website.
  4. This is not a chapter website.
  5. The web site must be available for viewing on the Internet at the time of judging. No changes can be made to the web site after the entry date.
  6. Student members, not advisers, must prepare web sites. Advisers should serve as consultants to ensure that the web sites are well organized, contain substantiated statements, and are presented in a professional manner.
  7. The use of templates must be identified at the bottom of the page.
  8. Any photographs, text, trademarks, or names that are used on the site must be supported by proper documentation and approvals indicated on the site.
  9. Web sites should be designed to allow for viewing by as many different platforms as possible.
  10. All copyright laws must be followed. Copyright guidelines are included in the format guide. Web sites will be disqualified for not following copyright guidelines.

State Judging

Ties will be broken as follows:

First Tiebreaker: Total points of the Content of Web page(s) effectively cover topic with all vital information included section on the rating sheet.

Second Tiebreaker: Total points of the Format, text, and graphics are consistent, well-balance and with no overlapping items that reduce readability section on the rating sheet.

Region Recognition

Local chapters/region advisers may decide the number and type of awards or recognition to be presented locally or at the RLC.

State Recognition

The state FBLA office will provide certificates of participation for local chapters to distribute to all members who participate in this event at the state level. After comparing the results of all participating members in the state, recognition will be issued to the 1st and 2nd place winners in this event.

National Recognition

Each state will submit two winners who will be recognized by the national center on the FBLA-PBL web site, and individuals will receive a medal of outstanding achievement.
